Warrior History

Course Description: Warrior History is designed to connect the fundamentals of the Western Civilization's historical timeline with the Current Affairs Climate of the global civilization. Conquest and survival dictate the baseline and the focal point of this course so that all the adaptations and cultural differences can be tied together according to basic needs of each civic group.

Our Warriors know who fought, who won, when they did it, and how they influenced those around them in an established historical political free order.

Objectives: Students will Know the basic foundations of survival and how their roots of battle created victories in mathematical, lingual, political, religious, and economic codes of communication, conduct, and order.

Students will Know how to adapt historical knowledge to problem solving in social, academic, athletic, and economic verticals.
