TUVAA's Warrior Writing

Course Description: Warrior Writing is designed to connect the spirit and the mind of the warrior with the verbal and written fundamentals of expression via the written word. A warrior can have great ideas and plans however, if those plans cannot be expressed then they become lost. Warrior Writing is the expression of each mental process for others to embrace via the written word.

Our Writing warriors know how to express their thoughts, their passion, their questions, and their concerns. Our warriors do not remain on an island because they can express their spirit with those who choose to read.

-	Students will Know the basic process of expression via the written word. Via outline, short story, simple phrase, or books of novel length, each warrior will be able to communicate their opinions in academic and expressive English language.
:	Students will problem solving in social, academic, athletic, and economic verticals.
