Course Math

Assignment MA-1

1. Is Math a Universal Language? Answer yes or no and tell us why?

2. Why should an individual know the basic addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division facts from 1-12 without the use of a computer, calculator, or math table?

3. What does (PEMDAS) or {Please Excuse My Dear Aunt Sarah) mean to math calculations?

4. Why is rounding numbers important to business or shopping or planning?

5. Are the math numbers written down the same by all cultures so that the calculations are interpreted in the same manner?

Essay A. Show the difference in writing down numbers in the United States and Europe.

Essay B. What advantage does a person have in the world of business and trade if they can calculate math problems in their head?